

Please do not reduce my protection of unsolicited phone calls by overturning NJ's do not call list. If I did not want this protection, I would not have signed up for it. Maybe the FCC should use NJ's law as a model to make the federal government's law more stringent.